

CHARM/AN TAN

actor · host · voiceover

Charmian Tan began her career on radio when she was 19. At 24, she started her stint as a radio DJ with Singapore's Mediacorp 987, and is best known for her weeknight show, The Knockout with Charmian (2017-2020). In 2019, she graduated from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts' summer program in New York City, and is a lifelong student with Singapore's Haque Centre of Acting & Creativity.

In 2021, Charmian wrote and starred in her first romantic-comedy short, 'This Is How We Never Happened' available on www.howenever.com. Other notable works include Jon M. Chu's Crazy Rich Asians (2018), The Big Day (2018) and drama series I See You (2019) with Director Lee Thean-jeen.

In the realm of television, Charmian is known for hosting local youth reality series, Groom My Room seasons 10 and 11 (2021), and her newest reality series, The Friend Zone (2022), is currently airing on YouTube channel, You Got Watch. Charmian is bilingual in both English and Mandarin.

When she's not in front of the camera, Charmian brings her radiant energy to the cycling room as a certified spin instructor with Absolute Cycle. She is also the host of her very own podcast, The Feels.

Charmian is managed by Ahundred Ants Productions (AHA).
